

8 REASONS EVERY OFFICE NEEDS AN ESPRESSO MACHINE

Let's talk about making our office even more freaking awesome with an espresso machine.

* Not actual facts or studies

1 Studies show that productivity rises by 62.7%* when you add an espresso machine to the office.

2 Accounting and Marketing get along so much better when espresso is involved.

3 It's closer than a coffee shop. Which means people get back to their desks sooner.

4 Latte Art Competitions are amazing teamwork-building exercises.

5 Employees show up earlier when they know they can make their favorite drink at the office.

6 People who drink lots of coffee have lots of energy. It's science!

7 Nothing says "closing the deal" in a client meeting like a cappuccino.

8 The water cooler is soooooo Eighties.

By coincidence, La Marzocco has an amazing office coffee program where their partners will supply us with not only a cafe-quality espresso machine, but also all the beans and service we need.
